Rotaract Club Names Matthew Suarez 2015-2016 Member of the Year

Springfield, MO (June 24, 2016) – Rotaract Club of Springfield, MO named Matthew Suarez the 2015-2016 Member of the Year at the annual End of Year celebration hosted at Springfield Brew Co.

With nominations collected by the Rotaract Board of Directors, club members then took the list of finalists to a vote and named Suarez for the award.

Suarez is an Investment Assistant for Central Trust Company, a position he has held for two years. He has been a member of the Rotaract Club since September 2014 and has maintained an active membership through his participation in regular attendance of meetings, community service opportunities, social activities and the Rock'n Ribs committee. In the upcoming year, Suarez will serve as the Rock'n Ribs committee Co-Chair to help plan and execute the club's participation in the annual event.

"Matthew Suarez truly embodies the mission of Rotary and Rotaract, putting 'Service above Self,' said Bryant Young, Board President. "We are proud to have members like Matthew; individuals willing to go above and beyond the scope of their membership to impact our club and our community."

About Rotaract Club of Springfield, MO:
