Rotaract Club Announces 2019-2020 Board of Directors

Springfield, MO – Rotaract Club of Springfield, MO has appointed new leadership for the 2019–2020 fiscal year. With goals focused on member growth and retention, and fundraising efforts to benefit its local charity of choice, Great Circle; the following individuals were selected for positions on the board of directors:

Past President: Megan Neyer, Old Missouri Bank
President: Brandon Bowenschulte, UMB
President-Elect: Derek Chaney, Mid-Missouri Bank
Secretary: Chase Rabourn, Medical Consulting Group, LLC
Director of Membership: Katie Gronniger, Commerce Trust Company
Treasurer: Jordan Ellis, Central Trust Company
Director of Public Relations: Dr. Kevin Rice, The Vision Clinic
Director of Professional Development: Bethany Bishop, People Centric Consulting Group
Sergeant at Arms: Austin Fax, Lowther Johnson, Attorneys at Law, LLC

Bowenschulte commented that, “The Rotaract Board of Directors for the 2019-2020 year is a diversified group of young professionals with a differing set of skills, talents, and passion that will complement each other towards our efforts of ‘Service Above Self’. With such a diversified group of passionate and dedicated individuals, we fully expect to reach new heights as the premiere organization for Springfield’s young professionals.”
